

DC, GEO, 41C-

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WASHINGTON (Georgetown)

State

County

Town or Vicinity

4p
16d

Oak Hill Cemetery, Gatehouse (DC-249)

Structure

3001 R St., NW. (Georgetown). Brick with sandstone trim, irregular plan, 40' x 68', office block is three stories, attached residence to west is two stories, gable roofs with overhanging bracketed eaves, three-story tower at SE. corner with arcaded bell housing, angle buttresses, arched windows with sandstone hoods on office block, Italianate and Gothic Revival details. Built 1850-1853; attributed to Capt. George de la Roche; major alterations c. 1867 when office portion raised from two to three stories and a two-story dining room wing added; subsequent minor alterations. Land, gatehouse and chapel donated by philanthropist W. W. Corcoran. 3 ext. photos (1968, 1969), 1 int. photo (1969); 16 data pages (1969).

(over)

Card prepared February 1974